Its Attorneys Save Mrs. Kane from a Shylock's Clutches.

TEST CASE AGAINST NEWMAN

Jury Renders a Verdict of $229.50 for the Victim of a Usurious Money-Lender-Succor Given an Oppressed Woman by a Fearless Newspaper. No Appeal Yet Taken.

The Times does not often refer to the fact that, by the aid of the pub-Helty it commands, many abuses which oppress the general public have been corrected through its columns and by its outside efforts.

This morning, however, it becomes a duty and a pleasure to announce that The Times' Free Bureau of legal advice yesterday restored to Mrs. Kane, without cost to her, the house-hold goods which had been unlawfully seized by Money Lender Newman, through his skillful practice of what is known as shylockism.

Some months ago The Times commeaced a war of extermination on these pirates of the poor. It has indulged in no self-landation of its course in conserving the interests of the common people, out the fight has been kept up and has been won... The Times is a newspaper, but it is also a public servant and feels a real debt to the people who have, in less than two years, made the most popular and largely circulated newspaper in Washington.

The case of Mrs. Sarah V. Kane against Bhylock Myer B. Newman was settled by a jury before Judge Cole yesterday in fifteen minutes in favor of the planniff. It will be remembered that it was in Mrs. Kane's case that the methods of Mr. Newman were first exposed by The Times and subsequently by the attorneys for The Times.

jury returned a verdict for Mrs. for $229.50. No notice of an appeal was terved jesterday.

The result of this case shows that Mr. Newman has lost all of the cases in which his peculiar methods were involved, and further shows that the law and the crizens generally are against his style of doing business with the poor and distressed.

Editor Times: —I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to The Times and to its attorneys for the recovery of my possessions frois the clutches of Money Lender Newman. By your unselfish and I was able to obtain justice. I wish also to express my thanks to the jury. Sincerely,
MRS. S. B. KANE.

COLONEL COIT'S TRIAL.

Methods of the Defense Cause a Delay In the Proceedings.
Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—The proceedings in the trial of Col. A. B. Coit were impoded for several boars to day by a conference of counsel for the defense over the method of proceedings. of procedure, Some of them were in favor of submitting the case without introducing any evidence, holding that the State had failed to make out a case.

holding that the State and lasted to make out a case.

The majority took another view of the matter, however, and the examination proceeded with Sheriff James Cook, of Fayette county, at whose request the militia was called out, on the stand.

His direct and cross-examination consumed most of the day. The heavy timber which was used by the mob in trying to break down the court house door was brought into the court room to-day to be used as evidence.

Slight Scare About a Landing of Supposed Filibusters Who Turned Out to Be Smugglers.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.-Correspond-ence of the United Press per steamer ence of the United Press per steamer China.

Homolula, Oct. 7.—The cholera is believed to be entirely suppressed. A second case appeared at the insane asylam on the evening of the second. This was the third case in eighteen days. The victim, an elderly white man named Wheeler, had drank water from a taro patch four days previous.

Most of the restrictions upon freight and passengers to the other islands have been removed. The public schools have been opened and evening services are again being held in the churches.

The Femnington has returned to Lahaina. The Olympia is expected here this week to cosal up for her passage to Japan.

On the morning of the 4th there was an active fillboster alarm. A boat with armed men was defiattely reported at 1 o clock a. m. as having landed two miles west of the city. There was great activity of the police and at 11 a. m. the tig is Elen went in pursuit of a local reported as seen in the oring. It is considered probable that there was a landing made by opium smugglers.

ALL PLEDGED TO NEWMAN.

All of her household goeds were pledged to Mr. Newman, the plenges exceeding the smoomts of the loans which were fifty dollars at one time and thirty-five dollars at mother, by a very large margin in the himmers of dollars.

Notwinkstanding Mrs. Kane's understanding, Newman sold, or claimed he sold all of the furniture. Mrs Kane therefore succle Newman for $3600 damages, the soilt having been originally been brought be ore Justice Taylor. Newman removed the case on certiferal to the upper court, and it was tried there yesterday.

WAS A TEST CASE.

Messrs. Raisten & Siddons appeared for the defendant. Siddons appeared for the defendant. The defense set up that Newman had paid out floot $20 on account of Mrs. Kane and had given $100 for the plano.

that Uncle Sam's officials sought to avoid rather than come in contact with Capt. Howgate.

One year ago the 27th of last month Capt. Howgate was again arrested. The arrest occurred in New York city, where, it was said, he was keeping a second-hand book and periodical store under the name of H. Wilhams. He was brought back to Washington. The grand goy the first of last April returned two indictments.

The first charged the deleadant with making a labs account against the Linied States, written in a voucher for $4,000, returned to the Third Andlior of the Treasury with the defendant's account for November, 1879. The second indictment charged Capt. Howgate with having transmitted on April 9, 1880, to the Third Andlior a false certificate in support of the account of November, 1879.

On a second trial, the pury failing to agree in the first, the appellant was convicted and sentenced in Judge McGemas court.

Counsel for the defense noted fifty-two assignments of errors before the court of appeals. The most important point in which the court below is affirmed to have erred is that governing the statute of limitations. Supreme Court Custom Suspended Because He Is Absent.

REASSEMBLING OF JUSTICES

Shifting of Seats Caused by the Death of Judge Jackson-Register of Wills McGill Admitted to Practice-Secretary Olney Presented Attorney

The Supreme Court convened yesterday for the October term, 1895. All the surviving justices were present. The death of Justice Jackson caused a slight rearrange-ment of the sittings on the bench, Mr. Justice White taking the deceased justice's place at the extreme right of the Chief Justice. This brought together Justices Gray, Brown, and White. There was, as usual upon the opening day of court, a large attendance of spec tators, but the number of attorneys was scarcely greater than on any motion day. This was due to the expectation that the court would transact no business beyond admitting new members of the bar, and then repair to the White House that the members might pay their respects to the Chief Executive.

MR. CLEVELAND'S ABSENCE. The court, however, on assembling found that President Cleveland was still absent from the city, so that the ceremony of calling upon him on the day or meeting had to be omitted for the second time during his "Presidential tenure.

Anony the presidential tenure.

Among the prominent members of the Supreme Court mar present were Secretary of State Other, who came to present his successor as Attorney General, Mr. Harmon, to the court; Hon. Don M. Dickinson and Col. Henry M. Duffield, of Detroit, also the staff of the Attorney General's office, hended by Solicitor General Conrad, and Hon. J. A. Tawney, of Minnesota. When the Justices had taken their seats Chief Justice Fuller said:

"The court reasonables again saddened by a vacant chair. Mr. Justice Jackson died at Nashville. Tenn., on the 8th of August last. This was followed by the departure of Mr. Justice Strong on the 19th day of the same month, who, during his retirement had maintained his companionship with the members of the bench he had adorned.

"It has been the immemorial usage for the court on the first day of the term, on the first day on which a quorum appeared.

"It has been the immemorial usage for the court on the first day on which a guorum appeared, to proceed in the transaction of no business, but to adjourn to await upon the President of the United States.

"The President is absent, and we shall follow the course pursued last year, namely, to dispose of such matters as may be properly brought before us. All motions not submitted to day may be brought on to miorrow, and the usual order for the call of the docket on that day will be entered."

Mr. Ofney them addressed the court as follows:

"I ask the indulgence of the court while I present my successor in the office of Atterney General of the United States—Mr. Judson Harmon."

The Chief Justice responded:
"The court parts with the retiring Attorney General with regret and is happy to welcome his successor. Let the commission of the Attorney General of the United States be recorded."

Alexandria's Convention Casts More Than 550 Ballots Without Result.

It Is Predicted That Owing to Weak Spots Among His Opponents, Barley Will Be Elected To-day.

More than 550 ballots weretaken yesterday and last night by the convention at AR2-angina, called for the picriose of electifical condidate for the house of delegates, and falling to cast a decisive vate-andjournment again was ordered till to-day.

The Lipscomb forces succeeded yesterday in smoking out of their holes those delegates, who secretly favor the Barkey side.

As a result two weak spots were discovered in the May delegation and one among Bendheim's adherents. It is expected that to-day Barley will capture the decisive majority. Lipscomb will fight to the last and enacyor to take from the others, but, he declares, if he loses, that next time he will sweep the decks clear.

The day was spent in the delegates shifting their votes from one candidate to another.

On the 471st ballot Mr. May received.

ing their votes from one candidate of another.

On the 471st ballot Mr. May received 1,147 votes, just thirteen short of the number necessary to elect. On the 475th and 483d ballots Mr. Lipscomb received the same vote, and Mr. Bendheim, on the 495th ballot, received 1,146 votes.

Throughout the evening session Mr. Barley's 692 votes shoot by aim and were cast sold for him each time the roll was called. solid for him cash time the roll was called. The interest in the election continued to increase, and at this session the hall was packed with spectators, all auxious to see the end. When the 500th build was reached the vote was exactly the same as that of the first build, and Mr. G. Hatley Norten, in an address, wreed harmony in the convention send warned the delegates of the danger of dissension.

PARTIES TAKE THE FIELD

One New Body Has Two Hundred and Augther Three Hundred Men-Great Excitement Caused in Havana-Expedition from Fiorida Said to Have Landed.

New York, Oct. 14.—Passengers arriving by the steamer Yumuri from Havana to-day say that the rebellionis spreading west-ward. Three bands of insurgents have appeared in the districts which have hitherto-been quiet.

One party of 200 men, bull of whom were said to be Spaniards, rose in the vicinity of Ratatino, twenty-five miles from Havana, and the southern terminus of the railroad and the southern terminus of the milroad backs ross across the stand from Havana. Another party has risen in Melena del Sur. It has 306 men, and the third party is at Yharra, the place where the relegion first broke out, and where quiet was restored has February. In the last porty there were 150 men.

The news of these risings have caused some excitement in Havana. It is also reported that Maximo Gomez has left 2,500 men in Camagney, and with 2,000 men is marching toward Las Villas.

CUBAN PATRIOTS LAND. Key West, Fla., Oct. 14.—Private ad-vices from Havana by the steamer Mascotte state that an expedition, composed of over 41 persons, successfully landed in Cuba, in the vicinity of Sagualagrande, 70 miles east of Cardenas,

This point of Cuta, only 30 miles from the Anguila Islands, on Salt Key bank, which is British territory, is only 50 miles from the Florida reefs, and offer superior advantages to Cuban tilibustering expedi-tions, on account of its proximity to the Florida kers and Key West as bases of supplies.

A prominent Cuban, repigne to a ques-tion as to who led the expedition, said it was not Callazos, but decimed to say who ITS PLANS CHANGED

It was intended that this expedition should land on the western end of Cuba, near Buena Vista River, but owing to the presence of the worships Comle de Vena-dito and Infanta Isabel, which are in that word has been received at Rio Janeiro stating that an armed British force is marching through Brazilian territory.

The objective point of the body is that part of Venezuela claimed by the British government.

The column has already crossed the Tacuta River.

PENNSY'S ELEVEN VERY PROUD.

They Downed Lehigh's Team by a Score of 54 to 0

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—The University of Pennsylvania's football team fairly outdid itself to day. The Lehigh team, the strongest of the State colleges, came down from Bethleiem and prepared to lower the Quaker prade by holding the red and blue score below 20, and perhaps tallying a little itself.

It took not quite thirty seconds, however, to knock a hole in those calculations, Geblert scoring the first touchdown after twenty seconds' play.

Nine times the leather was carried across the Lehigh line and touched down, and as many times it chanted the goal lar between the posts, while once it was carried across and rambled and secured by a Lehigh line.

Fifty four was Pennsylvania's total score, against nothing for Lehigh. Thirty points were made in the first half. Pennsylvania played fast from start to finish. The alteriadnes was 4,500.
